TENANT QUALIFICATION CRITERIA

I. Introduction

Allied Management (“the Company”) manages real estate investments for its clients, the property owner. As such, one of the Company’s most important task is selecting qualified, responsible tenants for rental properties in accordance with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations.

In connection with processing a rental application, there is a non-refundable processing fee of up to $45 for each person of the age of 18 years and older. This application fee is not a deposit, is not applied as rent credit, and will not be refunded even if an application to rent is declined.

The screening of each applicant will remain confidential and will not be disclosed to third parties except as required by law. This includes, but is not limited to all credit/background reports, rental and employment verification information, bank statements, tax and personal identification information.

The screening process that the Company undertakes is for the limited purpose of determining each applicant’s qualification to rent a property. Original documents provided to the Company by applicant(s) and copies of forms belonging to the Company which pertain to the application process may be provided to applicants upon request.

Please review the qualification criteria below before completing a rental application.

II. Application Screening Process

A Complete Application—an application that is incomplete will only delay the screening process. Supplying all requested information and required documents is imperative to a timely rental decision.

Rental History—your rental history must be verifiable from unbiased sources. If you are related by blood or marriage to a previous landlord, the Company may require a qualified co-signer. You must provide at least five (5) years of rental history ending with your current residence.

Owned Home—if you own(ed) your previous /current residence, you will need to furnish proof of ownership.

Information—it is each applicant’s responsibility to provide all of the information necessary to allow the Company to contact previous landlords, employment information, banking information, etc. The Company reserves the right to deny an application if it is unable to verify all of the information required to process the application.

Identification—two forms of valid and current identification, including a government-issued ID such as a driver’s license, and either a Social Security card, military ID or passport.

Income Requirement—verifiable evidence of income which is at least 2.5 times the monthly rent. The aggregate gross income (before taxes) of the applicants will be considered. We also require at least last two months of current pay statements, as well as your previous year's tax return or employer's wage reporting (W-2/W-4). Originals must be supplied of these items.

Self-Employment—each self-employed applicant must supply at least 3 months of most recent bank statements, two years of tax returns, and additional information as required by the Company.

HUD/Section 8 Assistance—it is the property owner's decision to participate in government-assisted housing. Please verify if housing assistance is accepted before applying for a specific property.

Forms of Acceptable Payment—The Company accepts cashier's checks and money orders only for the rental application process. This applies to all credit check fees, holding or security deposits and advance rent payments prior to taking possession of a property.

Co-Signer—if a co-signer is required, they must meet all of the qualification criteria and provide verifiable evidence of gross income equal to at least 4 times the monthly rent.

III. Credit Score

The Company requires that each applicant have a credit score (i.e., FICO or comparable) of at least 600. The Company may approve an application for a tenant with a credit score of less than 600 in its sole discretion, with the approval of the property owner, and subject to conditions such as (but not limited to) a qualified co-signer or increased security deposit.

IV. Denied Rental Application

A rental application may be denied if any applicant should do any of the following:

1. Misrepresent any information on the application. If in the last ten (10) years, any applicant has been convicted of the manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance.
2. If in the last ten (10) years any applicant has been convicted of a crime involving acts of violence towards persons or property, involving the use of a gun or otherwise, or a crime of theft.
3. If in the last ten (10) years any applicant has been the subject of an unlawful detainer or has any unpaid collections accounts from a former landlord on their credit report from.
4. If in the last two (2) years any applicant has declared bankruptcy or has an active, un-discharged bankruptcy.
5. Fail to have a credit score which does not meet the Company's minimum criteria.

An application may also be denied if you or any other applicant is reported by a previous landlord to have engaged in any of the following during the term of a rental tenancy:

- Repeated disturbance of a neighbor's peaceful enjoyment.
- Reports of gambling, prostitution, drug dealing, or drug manufacturing.

- Reports of violence or threats to the landlord, a neighbor, another occupant or a visitor.
- Allowing persons not on the lease agreement to live at the rental premises.
- Failing to comply with a lawful notice concerning the rental premises.

Your application may also be denied if a previous landlord indicates that either you or another applicant would not be eligible for another rental with that landlord for a reason other than a lack of vacancies or a change in age qualification for the property.
