TENANT QUALIFICATION CRITERIA

I. Introduction

Allied Management (“the Company”) manages real estate investments for its clients, the property owners. As such, one of the Company’s most important tasks is selecting qualified, responsible tenants for rental properties in accordance with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations.

All proposed occupants over the age of 18 are required to submit a complete application. Emancipated minors are also required to submit a complete application. A non-refundable processing fee of up to $50 is charged for each applicant. This application fee is not a deposit, is not applied as rent credit, and will not be refunded even if an application to rent is declined. However, if the Company does not run your screening reports for any reason, your cashier’s check(s) and/or money order(s) will be returned to you.

The screening of each applicant will remain confidential and will not be disclosed to third parties except as required by law. This includes, but is not limited to all credit/background reports, rental and employment verification information, bank statements, tax and personal identification information.

The screening process that the Company undertakes is for the limited purpose of determining each applicant’s qualification to rent a property. Original documents provided to the Company by applicant(s) and copies of forms belonging to the Company which pertain to the application process may be provided to applicants upon request.

Please review the qualification criteria below before submitting a rental application.

II. Application Screening Process

A Complete Application: All requested documentation from each applicant must be received by the Company along with the required application fee(s). The Company will not process incomplete applications.

Rental History: Your rental history must be verifiable from unbiased sources. If you are related by blood or marriage to a previous landlord, the Company may require a qualified co-signer. You must provide at least five (5) years of rental history ending with your current residence. Any negative items on your rental history may result in denial of your application.

Owned Home: If you own(ed) your previous/current residence, you will be required to furnish proof of ownership.

Information: It is each applicant’s responsibility to provide all of the information necessary to allow the Company to contact previous landlords, obtain employment information, etc. The Company reserves the right to deny an application if it is unable to verify all of the information required to process the application.

Identification: All applicants must provide two forms of valid and current identification, including a government-issued photo identification card, such as a driver's license, and either a Social Security card, military ID or passport as well as bank statements for the two most recent consecutive closed months.

Income Requirement: Verifiable evidence of legal income which is at least 3 times the monthly rent is required. The aggregate gross income (before taxes) of the applicants will be considered. Applicants must also submit consecutive pay stubs for the three most recent consecutive months, as well as your previous year's tax return or employer's wage reporting (W-2). Originals must be supplied of these items – photo copies will not be accepted.

Self-Employment: Each self-employed applicant must supply at least 6 months of most recent bank statements, two years of tax returns, and all additional information as requested by the Company.

Forms of Acceptable Payment: The Company only accepts cashier's checks and money orders for the application process fees. This applies to all application fees, holding or security deposits and advance rent payments prior to the applicant(s) taking possession of a property.

Co-Signer: If a co-signer is required, they must meet all of the qualification criteria and provide verifiable evidence of gross income equal to at least 5 times the monthly rent.

III. Credit Score

The Company requires that each applicant have a credit score (i.e., FICO or comparable) of at least 650. The Company may approve an applicant with a credit score of less than 650 with the approval of the property owner, and subject to conditions such as (but not limited to) a qualified co-signer and/or increased security deposit.

IV. Denied Rental Application

A rental application may be denied if any of the following applies to any applicant:

1. Misrepresentation of any information on the application.
2. If in the last ten (10) years, any applicant has been convicted of the manufacture or distribution of a controlled substance.
3. If any applicant's criminal report reflects that they have been convicted within the last ten (10) years of either 1) any crime involving acts of violence towards persons or property, involving the use of a gun or otherwise or 2) any felony of theft, vandalism or sexual offense.
4. If any applicant has ever been the subject of an unlawful detainer (eviction) or has any unpaid collections accounts from a former landlord reflected on their credit report in excess of $200.00.
5. If in the last two (2) years any applicant has a dismissed or discharged bankruptcy or has an active, un-discharged bankruptcy.
6. Fail to have a credit score which does not meet the Company's minimum criteria.

An application may also be denied if you or any other applicant is reported by a previous landlord to have engaged in any of the following during the term of a rental tenancy:

- Repeated disturbance of a neighbor's peaceful enjoyment.
- Reports of gambling, prostitution, drug dealing, or drug manufacturing.
- Damage to rental property beyond normal wear and tear.
- Reports of violence or threats to the landlord, a neighbor, another occupant or a visitor.
- Allowing persons not on the lease agreement to live at the rental premises.

NOTICE REGARDING CALIFORNIA INVESTIGATIVE CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCIES ACT

Landlord does not intend to request an investigative consumer report regarding the Applicant.

Unless the box above is checked, Landlord intends to request an investigative consumer report regarding the Applicant's character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living. Under Section 1786.22 of the California Civil Code, the files maintained on you by the investigative consumer agency shall be made available to you during business hours and on reasonable notice, provided you furnish proper identification, as follows: (1) You may appear at the investigative consumer reporting agency identified below in person, (2) you may make a written request for copies to be sent by certified mail to a specified addressee, or (3) you may make a written request for a summary of the file to be provided over the telephone. The agency may charge a fee, not to exceed the actual duplication costs, if you request a copy of your file. The agency is required to have personnel available to explain your file to you, and the agency must explain to you any coded information appearing in your file. If you appear in person, a person of your choice may accompany you, provided that this person furnishes proper identification. If you are accompanied by a person of your choosing, the agency may require you to furnish a written statement granting permission to the investigative consumer reporting agency to discuss your file in the other person's presence. The agency that will prepare the report(s) identified in this section is listed below:

CALIFORNIA APARTMENT ASSOCIATION CODE FOR EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY

The California Apartment Association supports the spirit and intent of all local, state and federal fair housing laws for all residents without regard to color, race, religion, sex, marital status, mental or physical disability, age, familial status, sexual orientation, or national origin.

The California Apartment Association reaffirms its belief that equal opportunity can best be accomplished through effective leadership, education, and the mutual cooperation of owners, managers, and the public.

Therefore, as members of the California Apartment Association, we agree to abide by the following provisions of this Code for Equal Housing Opportunity:

- We agree that in the rental, lease, sale, purchase, or exchange of real property, owners and their employees have the responsibility to offer housing accommodations to all persons on an equal basis.
- We agree to set and implement fair and reasonable rental housing rules and guidelines and will provide equal and consistent services throughout our residents' tenancy.
- We agree that we have no right or responsibility to volunteer information regarding the racial, creed, or ethnic composition of any neighborhood, and we do not engage in any behavior or action that would result in "steering."
- We agree not to print, display, or circulate any statement or advertisement that indicates any preference, limitations, or discrimination in the rental or sale of housing.
